

DANIELLE WIRSANSKY - DIRECTOR, PLAYWRIGHT

SHE/HER/HERS

danielle's website

danielle's twitter

contact danielle

DANIELLE WIRSANSKY is a graduate of Florida State University (FSU) with a BA in Theatre and a BA in Creative Writing with a minor in History. She is currently pursuing graduate studies at FSU in the History Department.

Danielle is the founder and President of White Mouse Productions at FSU, a student theatre company dedicated to social change, and serves as the FSU campus Editor of Uloop News. She is also the Communications Officer of the History Graduate Student Association at FSU. Her plays and musicals include City of Light (New Horizons Original Works Festival 2016), Falling in Love is Such an Easy Thing to Do (Augusta Conradi Studio Theatre, 2014), Blonde (Douglas Anderson Black Box Theatre 2012, Augusta Conradi Studio Theatre 2014). Short plays White Mouse and The Vulgarly of Grace have been produced at 365 Women a year festivals around the USA and internationally.

About Us

Contact Us

Privacy Policy

the parity store

⚙️ Edit Social Media Icons

- Only you can see this (<https://www.powr.io/knowledge-base/139>)
- Edit on Live Site

Donate

©2016 Parity Productions